

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and believe BellSouth's request would badly affect consumers with regards to available choices of Internet Service for broadband.